Description

Level 75 is the "hive" for the entity "Death Bees". The level takes place in a forest. The Forest is just like any other forest in The Frontrooms. One thing about this Level is the hills. The hills have caves connected to them. These caves are the Death Bee's hive. The level has no day/night cycle. It is always in the middle of the day. Level 75 also have cherry, and apple trees, and the flowers, which the Death Bees pollinate the flowers. There are also picnic tables. The trees vary in height, on this level. Level 75 also has a calming effect when entering the level. The only time when this level is dangerous, is when you provoke the Death Bees. Some trees have Almond Water dripping through them. The trees may also have Liquid Pain dripping though them, as well. Level 75 has tents, and cabins all over the level. These cabins, and tents have beds, sleeping bags, food, flashlights, and other supplies. This level also has ponds, these ponds have Almond Water, instead of normal water. Level 75's sky may also change color, and the ponds too. Random doors, windows, and tables are found in pieces, all over the level. The temperature is lukewarm, according to people, who has been in Level 75. If someone entered Level 75, they're sanity will remain the same, unless they drink Almond Water.

Level 75 has weird effects, such as random change of color, sudden wind noise without any wind, and rain sounds without any rain. It is not recommended to try to disturb the Death Bee Hives, on this level. The Death Bees, also roam, Level 75, outside of they're hive, quite often. In Level 75, there is a bit of long grass, the long grass can be 4 meters tall at max. Climbing the trees is not recommended, because when you climb a tree, on this level to the top, you will get dizzy, and you will probably, fall down, this happens most of the time, when someone climbs the trees. This also happens with drone, and when a drone bypasses the trees, the drone will black out, and stop working, until it has reached the ground. If some tries to chop down, a tree in Level 75, the Death Bees will attack the person who is attempting to chop down a tree. However if the Death Bees don't show up, the person, who is chopping down the tree will pass out. It has been proven that same thing happens, when a someone tries to dig into the ground. The grass on Level 75 can be eaten, and those who have eaten it, say it tastes like Almond Water. There are ruins on this level. it is unknown what these ruins where, or are, but some people think there where people/entities that lived in these ruins, and they left, because the Death Bees came here, and the Level Became crowded.
